The other is information received from other sources, including information typically found in a credit report ("Third Party Data"). We and our Affiliate(s) may share Third Party Data and Transaction History with each other. We do this to provide you with the products and services we offer. We may make such disclosures about you as a consumer, customer, or former customer.

Note that regardless of your request, we and our Affiliate(s) are permitted by law to share Transaction History with each other. In addition, your request to not share Third Party Data with our Affiliate(s) does not prohibit us from contacting you about additional products or services.

(4) To Marketing Service Providers and Joint Marketing Partners: We may disclose some or all of your Private Information to companies that perform marketing services for us or to other financial institutions with which we have joint marketing agreements, such as to offer you a financial product. C. How We Protect Private Information:

We restrict access to Private Information about you to our employees and third parties who need to know that information in order to manage your account and provide you with the products and services you request. Additionally, we strive to maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your Private Information in a manner consistent with industry standards for similar companies.
